LOCAL EVENTS.

EMMA JUCH DELIGHTED WITH HER RECEPTION.

A Couple of Lost Stars of the Dime Museum—Latest Developments in the Lottery Crusade—A Well-known Los Angelan Married.

Emma Juch and her company are carried away with Los Angeles, and will sing the praise of the citizens of this city for some time to come. Miss Juch was seen at her room in the Hollenbeck last evening, and in speaking of the midnight performances at the Grand Wednesday night, she stated:

"Nothing would give me greater pleasure than to thank each one of that famous audience individually for the high compliment they paid me. I would have staked my life when 9 o'clock came, and we were yet several miles from Los Angeles, that the opera-house had been closed for the night. When we reached the depot and Mr. Douglas came into the car and told us that the audience was waiting for us I was thunderstruck. Mr. Locke thought it would be too hard on me to go on and sing, but my mind was made up in a moment, and I would have honored that audience with my presence had I known that it was to be my last performance. Your people deserve more than I am able to give them, for I do not believe there is another city in the world that would show such indulgence. I have traveled all over the world, but I never before heard of such a thing. I have had my share of bad luck since my company was organized, but Wednesdays night more than repays me. Los Angeles shall be my favorite city in the future."

Adolph Neuendorff, musical director of the company, was seen at his hotel. Mr. Neuendorff has been in the theatrical business 35 years, in all parts of the world, and for 18 years he was manager of the Germania Theater in New York, but in all his experience he never saw anything to equal Wednesday night.

In New York, said Mr. Neuendorff, "there such a rock as played on an audience there would not have been a chair left standing in the building. When I reached the building I had to look at the audience to satisfy myself that there were over a dozen people in the house, for they were so quiet that I was willing to bet there was a policeman in every aisle. But there was not a policeman in the building that I could see. Oh, yes, I have known performances to begin late, but never later than 9:30. Our curtain did not go up until 10:45, and it was only a few minutes of 2 in the morning when the last of the audience left the house. If ever I get money enough to settle down I'm coming to Los Angeles, for I want to live and die with people who can display such an amount of patience. You have a wonderful city and a wonderful people."

LOST STARS.

A Sword-swallowing and a Boy Prodigy Missing.

Mrs. Isaacs of the Dime Museum is in a world of trouble, and has been besieging the police station for a day or two trying to enlist the strong arm of the law to help him out of his difficulties. Some days ago a man named Griffin came to the city, accompanied by a young boy, and claimed to be a prodigy, as was also the boy, who was a prodigy on the banjo. Mr. Isaacs, being in need of some new talent, engaged Griffin and the boy, and the latter entered on his duties as "people's favorite" on Main street. Griffin explained that he was a sword-swallowing by profession, but, owing to hard times had been compelled to leave his paraphernalia at some place on the route, and therefore could not do his act. Meanwhile he was boarding at Mr. Isaacs's expense, and this becoming monotonous, the museum went with Griffin to the Kan-Koo, on Spring street, where such a sword as was needed was secured. The weapon was turned over to Griffin, who made himself scarce, and has not since materialized, besides which he carried off the "banjo prodigy," who was proving such a drawing attraction. Mr. Isaacs, after spending some time in looking after his "stars" without success, reported the matter at the police station, and swore out a complaint against Griffin, who, up to a late hour last night, had not been captured. Griffin, it is said, is wanted for a similar trick played on a circus manager at San Bernardino.

THE LOTTERY CRUSADE.

Old Man Wolfstein Enters a Plea of Guilty.

The lottery men are still somewhat undecided as to what course to pursue, at least those who have not yet taken legal advice. Yesterday afternoon Max Harris appeared before Judge Owens for arraignment, when he asked for time to plead, and was given until Thursday morning next at 10 o'clock. There are also two charges against Leo Sanderson, a 13-year-old boy in Harris's employ, who sells most of the tickets, and the pleading in these cases was set for the same time.

At 4 o'clock in the case of H. Wolfstein came up. Thursday afternoon Mr. Wolfstein could not tell whether he was guilty or not guilty, until he saw the man who swore to the complaint, but after sleeping over the matter he concluded to enter a plea of guilty, and asked that his case be continued until February 8th, which was done, and it will come up again on that day at 2 o'clock.

There are one or two others who have not yet been arraigned and entered their plea, but they will probably come up today or tomorrow.

In the mean time the police are keeping a sharp lookout, and if the law is violated the agents may find another lot of complaints against them when the cases come up for trial.

GENE MARRIED.

He Stole a March on His Many Friends.

'Gene Maxwell's young friends have missed him for several days past, but their inquiries failed to throw any light on the subject, for, as near as can be learned, he did not tell any one where he was going, and his mission was also kept in the dark. He returned home yesterday looking as happy as a real estate agent in boom times. His friends were as anxious as ever, but he did not seem inclined to indulge them, and had it not been for a wide-awake railroad man the chances are that they would have been kept in the dark for some days to come. As near as can be learned 'Gene was off on a mission of love. He visited Visalia, Tulare county, and while there he and the charming daughter of Receiver of the Land Office Wright were united in marriage. The young couple are spending the honeymoon in this city.

Santa Monica.

SANTA MONICA, Jan. 30.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] The Board of Trade met Tuesday evening to elect officers for the coming term, but as there were so few members present the election was postponed until next Saturday evening. The breakwater was discussed, and a committee was appointed to write to Senator Jones, who is now in Washington, concerning this matter.

The Mabel Santy and Lida Gardner Company will play here at Steere's Opera-house Friday evening, January 31st. This burlesque troupe has been established quite a number of years, and is well spoken of in the eastern cities.

Mrs. Waller, who has been laid up with sciatic rheumatism, was able to get out in the warm sunshine on Wednesday afternoon.

There will be services and the celebration of the Holy Communion in St. Augustin's Church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Another lecture on Nationalism will be given next Tuesday evening at Steere's Opera-house by Ralph E. Hoyt of Los Angeles. A Nationalist club will be organized at the same time.

The Coming Campaign—Democratic Hopes.

San Bernardino Courier.

As to the Democrats, they are passive so far, in State and county. It is sound policy. The Republicans are in the ascendant, and must make the fighting. There is a universal sentiment from Del Norte to San Diego for Senator S. M. White to head the State Democratic ticket. Every Democrat wants him. The call is literally unanimous.

So far the entertainment of the Tennyson Society was postponed from last week on account of the rain, and will take place this evening. Following is the programme:

EAST SIDE.

Story of Two Men, a Boy and a Dog.

Mr. Kurgman, who has been visiting Mrs. Gregg of Primrose avenue, left for San Diego yesterday.

The Nationalists held no meeting last evening, as contemplated, owing to other arrangements previously made.

A movement is on foot to organize a New York Society in East Los Angeles. Any New Yorker favoring and wishing to know more of the scheme can call on Will Pierce, at his livery stable.

The Iowa representation on the East Side is very prominent, and the wonder is why they have not organized a society long before this. One peculiarity of the Iowans is that a Democrat is unknown among them.

Quite an amusing incident occurred yesterday on Downey avenue. It was a set-to between a couple of men dressed in blue, with yellow bands around their hats, and a small lad of about 5 years, who was leading a puppy along the sidewalk. The gentlemen in blue accosted the lad and asked him where he got his dog, and were answered promptly that he got him at home. The men in blue ordered the lad to halt and remove the rope from the dog's neck, which the lad refused to do, claiming that it was his dog and he was going to take him home. Notwithstanding the boy's pleading for his property and efforts to retain it he was compelled to give it up to his superior in strength.

After the men in blue had secured their prize and went to put him away they found their own little "pup" neatly housed up awaiting further orders. The boy's dog was afterward released and the boy, though small, stood forth the better of the trio.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—In the stock market today the bears went in easily to make a decline to cover up, but, except in Rock Island, there was little effect made upon the list. The attempt was soon given up, and prices allowed to drift for the remainder of the day until toward the close, when buying was the occasion of a full recovery of the early losses, with something in addition in most of the stocks traded in.
The most prominent feature of the day was the buying of Pacific Mail, which was based primarily upon the expectation that there will be legislation which will secure to this and other companies better compensation for carrying mails, etc., but the appearance of Rufus Hatch, at one time president of the company, as an active buyer, led to a suspicion that there must be a combination behind him. The stock mounted to 41%, against 39% last evening, but in a raid of the bears lost almost all of the improvement, closing with only a fractional gain. The attack of the bears was most felt in grangiers and Rock Island.

Pasadena Edition.

Times.

IN PASADENA
THE TIMES is served regularly by carrier, at an early hour every morning, to the residences and business places of citizens, at the same price charged in Los Angeles.

The Pasadena Edition is now published every day, and the matter on this page runs through the entire issue; so that Pasadena and her advertisers get the full benefit of the Times circulation.

HAVE we a municipal Caesar?
The Altadena slopes are beds of wild flowers.

ATTEMPTS are being made to devise means to keep the library open until the new building is ready for occupation.

THE lecture of Mr. Hopkins for the benefit of the Gardening Company should be kept in mind. Here is an opportunity to contribute to the welfare of the city in a small but telling way.

THE opera is being well patronized by Pasadenaans, parties going in to every performance. Last evening Carmen delighted a crowded house, and the matinée today will be attended by a large Pasadena delegation.

THE past few days are what is known as Southern California weather at its best. We have seen the days roll into weeks and months of just such days in the past years, and despite the stormy winter there are more such days in the Pasadena year than can be found in any spot outside of Southern California.

THE monthly report of Dr. McAllister, Health Officer of the city, is given in this issue, and we commend it to critics of this climate. We have had la grippe here for three weeks or more, yet the death rate of January does not show it. Not a city in the East or North can make such a remarkable showing.

THE track of the Cross rapid-transit road is creeping rapidly up from Los Angeles. The rolling stock is all ready for use, and the whistle of the locomotive will echo in the valley before we know it. When the first train moves up over the Altadena road, Pasadena should celebrate the event. We can afford to hang out our flags and tender a banquet to the promoters of the idea.

THAT fruit-canning and preserving can be made to pay in Pasadena we have shown by the experiment of Miss Hinman and Miss Amos who, beginning in a small way, have worked up a large and lucrative business, shipping hundreds of boxes of Pasadena jams and jellies to every part of the United States. If two ladies can do this why cannot other firms.

OUR prohibition contemporary seems to be in a quandary. In its protest once again against the saloon becoming a part and parcel of Pasadena. In all the secret underground meetings of that mysterious organization, known as the Progressive League, we have never yet heard any one advocate a grocery policy for Pasadena. The advocates of the saloon are creations of prohibition fancy.

THE Board of Trade should have the cordial support of every one. Mr. Masters, its president, and the gentlemen who have labored in its interests are desirous of seeing the name of every one interested in Pasadena on the membership list. An instance of the work the board does is seen in the forthcoming visit of the Society of New England Grocers. The Board of Trade has voted to entertain them while in this city, and the impressions produced upon these business men will have no little effect in inducing people to come here.

PERSONAL.

Thomas Furlong will leave for Honolulu Monday.

Miss Franklin is spending the week at the Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. Neely go to Coronado Beach today for a few days.

O. H. Conger yesterday entertained Judge Bartlett Tripp, a prominent citizen of Dakota.

Maj. George B. Hogan and wife were in Los Angeles Thursday in attendance upon the Duncan-Crocker marriage ceremony in St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

Rev. Cornelius, D.D., and wife arrived in town Thursday evening from San Francisco to make preparations for their daughter's wedding, which is announced for next Tuesday.

Adm. E. Elmer died of consumption Thursday afternoon, at his home on North Summit avenue, in the two-year-old of his age. His father and a brother and sister are suffering from the same dread disease.

The private car of Capt. Hudson of the Chicago and Iowa Railroad was sidetracked here Thursday evening. Yesterday afternoon it was attached to the 4:40 train, en route for Riverside. Mr. Hudson expressed himself as delighted with Pasadena.

Bishop Neely and Gov. Waterman. When Bishop Neely came to California he did not suppose that he knew many persons here, but curiously enough he has found that Gov. Waterman is an old friend and neighbor, and as a result of the discovery several pleasant meetings between the two gentlemen have been had recently. The Bishop was to have returned east this week, but it was learned this evening that he will remain over at the request of Gov. Waterman to attend the laying of the corner-stone of the Whittier public building.

The Health Officer's Report.

The report of Health Officer McAllister for January shows a total of 18 deaths during the month, resulting from the following diseases: Consumption, 8; post-partum hemorrhage, 1; typhoid pneumonia, 2; Bright's disease, 1; heart disease, 4; laryngitis, 1; dermatis of the liver, 1. Seven of the deceased had lived in Los Angeles county less than five months prior to their deaths.

THREE HOTELS.

HOSTELRIES THAT PASADENA MAY WELL BOAST OF.

Raymond Attractions—Monday's Tennis Tournament—The Webster Ball—Ladies at the Painter Take a Ride.

It would be hard to find a more charming winter resort in America than the Raymond. At this time of year it is seen at its best. Few other places can afford their guests the privilege of sitting on such a piazza as that one on the south side of the house with a glorious view spread out before them, and breathing an enervating atmosphere pleasantly tempered by the sun's warm rays. Back East there are snowstorms and ice; here is a land of warmth and beauty, already taking on the habiliments of spring.

But aside from its natural surrounding attractions the Raymond can justly claim to be conducted as few hotels. The culinary department is widely known for its excellencies. The rooms are commodious, comfortable and in the best of taste, and ample provisions are made for having them. The main part of the house is heated by steam. Billiard-rooms for ladies and gentlemen, the music hall for hops or theatrical attractions and an excellent orchestra are provided by the management to help interest and amuse the guests indoors, while outside there are tennis courts, a croquet ground, shuffleboard and a bowling alley.

The livery stable is taxed these days to furnish enough horses for those who want to ride or drive. Several new animals have been purchased lately, but still it is impossible at times to supply the demand.

The ribbon german will be given next Friday evening. Invitations will be sent out today. About twenty-five couples will be present.

The chief topic of conversation now is the tennis tournament which is to come on Monday on the hotel courts. Should the weather prove pleasant the event is likely to be a glorious delight.

Yesterday the drawing for partners in the mixed doubles came off.

From the Pasadena club were entered Messrs. Lindsay, Chambers, Channing, Barnes, Parker and Gilmore and Misses Cooley, Bradley, Trow, English and Shoemaker. The Raymond entries are Misses Cody, Ives and Marsh and Mr. Thomas. The players were paired off by the drawing as follows: Mr. Lindsay and Miss English, Mr. Barnes and Miss Ives, Mr. Gilmore and Miss Shoemaker, Mr. Thomas and Miss Marsh, Mr. Chambers and Miss Trew, Mr. Parker and Miss Bradley, Mr. Channing and Miss Cody. A blank was drawn opposite the name of Miss Cooley, there being one more lady than gentlemen entered. Several of the above teams are very evenly matched, and some exciting contests are sure to result.

The tournament will begin promptly at 9 o'clock Monday morning. Gentleman's singles will be played first.

C. A. Scharff will be master of the grounds. Prizes will be awarded to the winners of the ladies' and gentlemen's singles, gentlemen's doubles and mixed doubles.

and the Salvation Army Celebrates Its Second Anniversary.

The second anniversary of the Salvation Army in Pasadena came off yesterday. Adj't and Mrs. Pebbles led the forces and handled them well. At 4 o'clock there was a street procession.

Now that the foliage is off the deciduous trees, and before the buds begin to swell, is the time to apply washes for the San José scale. Following is Corwell's formula, which has been used successfully throughout the State:

Fifty pounds best quality unsulphured lime; 20 pounds sulphur, 15 pounds camphor stock; 60 pounds oil.

Boil 10 pounds of lime and 20 pounds of sulphur in 20 gallons of water for half an hour or more, or until both lime and sulphur are dissolved. The sulphur must be thoroughly dissolved and mixed with the lime. The mixture will be an orange color.

Then sink in an empty half-barrel, 40 pounds of the best quality of lime with soft hot water, using enough water to thoroughly slacken the lime and keep it in a liquid form. After the lime is slackened add 60 pounds of coarse salt, while the material is still hot.

When the salt is well dissolved, mix the lime together with the sulphur.

The printed dodger put it, the army followed by the enemy to Williams' Hall, where a fierce battle took place.

At 8 o'clock, rebels were sworn in, and at 9:30 a half-night of prayer began.

The "shouting hallelujah lass," Miss Jordan, Miss Ross, Miss Birdie Cripe, Miss Faye, Mrs. and Mrs. Fisher, Miss Bushnell, Mr. Heinrich, Mr. Shaw, Mr. Longyear, Mr. McLane and Mr. Marsh.

But little was doing in Judge Stanton's court yesterday, only five cases being disposed of, and those of a trivial character.

There will be a meeting of the Homs Creamery Company, at the Savings Bank, corner Main and Winston streets, today at 1:30.

The meeting of the State Board of Trade has been postponed 10 days on account of the condition of the roads in the northern portion of the State.

The Undertakers' Association of Southern California has adopted resolutions of regret on the death of the late James E. Moody, a copy of which will be sent to the family of the deceased.

Quong Sing and Quong Yek, the two Chamanen on trial before Judge Owens on a charge of selling lottery tickets, were yesterday discharged, there not being sufficient evidence on which to secure a conviction.

The regular monthly meeting of the King's Daughters will be held this afternoon at 2:30 in the Fort-street Methodist Episcopal Church, when the annual election of officers will take place. It is therefore important that members of the order should be present.

Toyt Sing, the murderous "deadhead" who attempted to murder the old door-keeper because he would not pass him into the Chinese Theater, was yesterday held to answer before the Superior Court by Judge Owens in the sum of $5000, in default of which he went to jail.

Borglum's fine picture, "Staging in California," has been returned from Chicago, and will be on exhibition at his studio, Second street, between Spring and Main, for a few days. Many who failed to see it before it was sent away will take advantage of this opportunity.

In the case of Frank Winkler, charged with assault, was before before Judge Owens yesterday afternoon the prosecuting witness, Mr. Hartup, failed to show up, and the case went over until 8 o'clock Thursday afternoon. This is the case where Winkler struck Hartup in the eye with a stone because the former hit the latter's dog with a rock.

Yesterday morning between 11 and 12 o'clock W. H. Dillon and Johnny Doyle got into a fight in front of Noel's saloon, on Main street, when they were arrested by Officer Hill. In the afternoon they came before Judge Stanton, when Doyle pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $20, which was paid. Dillon was discharged.

During the past month the following students have graduated at the Los Angeles Business College and English Training School, and they were yesterday presented with the college diploma: William Hunter, William Anderson, Louis Kork, James H. Matfield, Carl Goller, Chris Schwarz, Godfrey Edwards, G. W. Peterson and Lotte Doan.

William Inkens, the Boyle Heights shop keeper arrested yesterday afternoon, on the complaint of C. C. Jackson, on a charge of malicious mischief, came before Judge Owens yesterday afternoon, when he asked for a jury trial, and the date for the same was fixed. Inkens says that he intends to see the case through to the end.

Yesterday afternoon, between 4 and 5 o'clock, Officer Jackson saw a couple of young Mexicans on San Pedro street, beating a young man in an unmerciful manner. He placed them under arrest and took them to the police station, when they gave the names of Aneicot Perez and Hidalgo Vejar, and were locked up on a charge of cruelty to animals.

The Chinese highbinder, Ah Ging, who attempted to murder another heathen named Ah Sam on Sanchez street two or three weeks ago, was yesterday held by Judge Owens to answer before the Superior Court to the charge of assault with a deadly weapon, with bail fixed at $2000. This was promptly furnished by the wealthy Chinese company behind the ruffian, and he was released.

Henry George Delayed.

Owing to a delay of the overland Santa Fe train, Henry George could not speak in this city last evening. He will arrive today, however, and will speak tonight. Tickets sold for last night will be good tomorrow. Mr. George is under contract to deliver two addresses here under the Illinois Association management. It is expected that he will address a second meeting Sunday evening, and the managers have telegraphed him at The Needles to that effect.

John H. Curley, the well known merchant tailor of San Francisco, is writing to the Edison Joy Co., that for years he was afflicted with dyspepsia which nothing relieved till he commenced taking Joy's Vegetable Sprinkle. He continues: "I am still taking it. Its mild laxative effects are exceedingly grateful to the system. It is a pleasant surprise that awaits those who do not know what our vegetable juices do for debility, sluggish liver and impaired digestive organs."
